

Use Case Description for Project Manager

Use case name	Description
CreateProject	Project Manager adds new project and fills up details like description, funding, department etc. Project Manager can publish the project which gets added to the project catalog
ModifyProject	Project Manager can modify the existing project details.
ReviewStudentProfile	Project Manager can view the matched student profile for assessment.
AcceptOrDeclineStudent	Project Manager can make decision by accepting or declining student's application based on assessment.
SendAdmissionOffer	If the student is accepted, the Project Manager will send the admission offer letter to the student.
ReceiveResponseLetter	The project manager will receive the response from the student whether he accepts or declines admission.

Use Case Description for Time

Use case name	Description
DisplayMatchedProjectList	The matching between student profile and project has to be done and displayed after student submits the profile.
EstablishCommunicationChannel	Once the matched projects gets listed the communication channel between student and project manager has to be established.

Use Case Description for Student

Use case name	Description
RegisterAccount	Student registers and creates an account. An empty profile is initialized when an account is created.
CreateProfile	Student can fill/modify the fields and save his/her profile draft as long as the profile has not been submitted. Once all the fields are filled, student can submit his/her profile to the system. This submit action will trigger the matching function which will return the matched projects if there is any.
ViewProjectDetails	Once the profile is submitted, student can view the matched projects and their description.
SendMsgToPM	Student can send message to the corresponding project manager for requesting any further information or negotiate the financial aid.
ApplyForProject	Once the student has decided to take the project, he/she can apply for the project. During the application of one project, the student can not apply for another project.
ResponseToOffer	If the student receives an offer letter, the student can choose whether to accept the offer or not. If the student receives a decline letter, the student can apply for other matched projects.