

Name: Make Offer

Participating actor: Project manager

Entry condition: Project manager has a student list which successfully applies for a project and the communication channel is already established. So the project manager can communication with this student.

Exit condition: The Offer is successfully submitted.

Flow of events:

- Scenario 1:

1. The project manager can review the student profile and see which project the student want to apply in it
2. Project manager can submit an offer for this student by Browsing the offers list for this project
3. He can modify the existing offer before submitting it.
4. He press submit Button
5. System sends notification message to student.

- Scenario 2:

1. The project manager can review the student profile and see which project the student want to apply in it
2. There is no offering list exist for this project.
3. He can automatically generate a new offer by
 - a. Opening new offer form
 - b. Selecting start date, duration of the project
 - c. Add budget for this project
4. System sends notification message to student.

Name: Accept Offer

Participating actor: Student

Entry condition: Student receive the notification message. And The communication channel is already established so he can communicating with Project manager

Exit condition: The student Acceptance is successfully submitted.

Flow of events:

- Scenario 1:

1. The Student can open the offer and download it.
2. The student can send message to Project manager for more details and discuss the offer.
3. The Student can download the accept offer form to fill and sign it offline.
4. He can upload The acceptance offer form
5. And submit it.
6. System appear Popup Message “ The accept offer letter is successfully submitted”

- Scenario 2:

1. The Student can open the offer and download it.
2. Student can upload his signature photo.
3. Student can click on “quick accept button” which send automatically acceptance offer with the student signature.
4. System appear Popup Message “ The accept offer letter is successfully submitted”

- Scenario 3:

1. The Student can open the offer and download it.
2. Student can click on “quick accept button” without Uploading his signature
3. System appear popup message “You Should Upload your Signature”
4. After he upload it he can submit the offer
5. System appear Popup Message “ The accept offer letter is successfully submitted”